Things To Know & Do

- Fall in love with Goddess Serendipity. Turn on your curiosity to maximum drive. Let our curated and eclectic content open your mind and imagination to all things exciting and galvanizing.
- All links, graphics and videos are intentional parts of a FutureBook Project. Take the time to enjoy them. If not, you'll miss a roll in the hay with Serendipity.
- PDF files can be downloaded so you can highlight, underline and take notes. Use the uncopyrighted content any way you wish.
- We intentionally mix metaphors until we're goofy. It gets you used to reading in the style of hopping around the content like a crazed monkey.
- Follow links as far as your mood of the moment will allow. At different times you'll just skim and scoop, be studious or open every closet like a scholar. Go with Goddess Serendipity. She loves you dearly.
- Wear your Fun Frock; you never know when we're going to drop a humor bomb on you. Believe it.
- Understand everything leaks and you can't do diddly-squat about it. Going with the flow is the only choice.
- Know you're on an EXPEDITION of discovery and exploration. Make it FUN, exciting and worthy.
- SPANK your Normalcy Bias and Behavioral Script in the ass. They're houses of ill repute when it comes to FutureBook Projects.
